

Motor Vehicle Service and Maintenance Level 3 Apprenticeship

Duration: 3 Years academic study/training and up to 3 months End Point Assessment

Overview of role

Working 5 days a week as a Motor Vehicle Technician apprentice for a business, with one of those days being attendance at college during term time; with further time at college or in training at work to fulfil the total 20% off the job training requirement.

The gaining of knowledge and practical skills to complement those learnt within the working environment for working on light vehicles, up to the Motor Vehicle Service and Maintenance Technician (Light Vehicle) Level 3 Apprenticeship Standard.

Once the apprentice is deemed competent by their employer, they will be put forward for an End Point Assessment which comprises of knowledge exams, practical skills testing and a professional discussion.

There are progression routes to Level 4 and above.

Entry requirements

Maths and English at GCSE Grade 4 (C) and above.