

HNC Health and Social Care Additional Costs

This document highlights the costs that students may have to meet in addition to their course fees and normal travel costs to attend lessons:

Work-Based Learning:

All students are required to work within an appropriate health care setting on an employed or in some cases voluntary role and any expenses required for travel or otherwise are students' responsibility

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Check:

Student DBS checks are not required by the college however, it is a legal requirement for those working in health and social care settings. Although some organisations will process this at no cost to the student, others will require the student to pay for this themselves.

If students wish to, they may pay for a DBS check through North Kent College at a cost of £44.00.

Trips:

Students may wish to attend other trips, events and seminars the travel arrangements and expenses for these events are the responsibility of the student.

Coursework:

Resources used in the production of the coursework and any stationery including extra printing costs and any books or magazine subscriptions are the responsibility of the student.
